

Dr. Christopher Vogl

Dr. Christopher Vogl advises on Corporate and M&A matters as well as commercial law. His practice comprises investments, acquisitions and divestments, shareholder meetings, contract negotiations and litigation.

He started his career in an internationally-focused leading law firm, mainly in the field of cross-border M&A and corporate matters. After seven years of experience, he decided to advance his practice in a small and agile unit.

Christopher has particular expertise in Asia. He worked for 12 months as a lawyer in Tokyo and has negotiated numerous deals with participation of Asian companies. He is well aware of the challenges for both Asian and European business partners.

Christopher speaks German, English and Japanese.

Dr. Christopher Vogl is recognized by the German magazine Handelsblatt as Lawyer of the Future 2022 for corporate law and M&A. In addition, he is recognized by Best Lawyers: Ones to Watch 2022 for corporate law and M&A. He is listed by Chambers as Foreign expert for Japan 2023.
