

Dominic Wolf

Dominic Wolf specialises in corporate law. He advises on M&A transactions and represents clients in corporate law disputes. Another focus of his work is structuring succession planning, particularly with regard to foundations. A core part of his practice is supporting family businesses and entrepreneurial families, as legal advice in this area is always characterised by a special level of personal trust.

Dominik Wolf started his career at an internationally active law firm. At Kuhn Carl Norden Baum, he combines his professional expertise with individual and client-oriented advice.
